LGBTQ2+ Oral History Digital Collaboratory

Video Log Form

Name of Interviewee:	Joanna Clark
Name of Video Logger:	Evan Taylor
Interview date:	**##########

Description/Topic of clip	Start time	End time	Ending language	Notes, if any
Tells story of her great aunt who was first woman to be elected to public office in the USA, in Topeka, Kansas.	0:08:54	0:12:19	"…she was in her late 97th."
Tells story of how her grandmother wasn't initially supportive, but changed her mind when she saw her surgery results.	0:16:43	0:19:00	"…and after that she defended me."
Talks about a significant case with an imprisoned trans woman in San Diego.	1:11:44	1:22:14	"…they were all crying."
Reads a recent facebooks post she is proud of.	1:33:09	1:33:55
Would I have become an activist?	1:40:01	1:40:11	"Would I have become an activist? Maybe, maybe not. That one night set me on the road to becoming an activist."
Transsexual vs. Transgender	2:05:31	2:05:46	"Yeah, I went in. I says, I'm sorry I'm not transgendered. I'm transsexual. They said, No, you're transgendered. I said, No, I says, I changed my sex to conform to my gender. I says, I didn't change my gender to conform to my sex."	