LGBTO2+	Oral	History	Digital	Collaborator

Video Log Form

 Name of Interviewee:
 Jamison Green

 Name of Video Logger:
 Evan Taylor

 Interview date:
 28-Feb-20

Description/Topic of clip	Start time	Starting language or Quote	End tim	Ending language	Notes, if any
	0.07.10	"I'm the first American and the eighth person in the world with a PhD in law specializing in transgender and transsexual issues."
	0.07.10	Tim the first Americal and the eighth person in the world which a Prio in law specializing in transgender and transgender and transgender and transgender size.
	0:24:25	"I don't think of myself as transgender all the time, right. It's a political position."	0:24:31
	0:32:12	"And I really worried about people adopting transgender as an identity label right. I thought it was an organizing label, not an identity label."	0:32:18
amison recalls different words used over time to describe trans people.	0:54:39	"_if somebody else said it. That was not good."	0:57:05
	0:57:53	"I write for two reasons. One is to be evocative to move people and one and the other is to educate, to inform. Mm hmm. And so in both styles of communication. You use words differently. But you have to be clear."	0:58:14
amison on why he wanted to be involved with WPATH	1:31:52		1:32:35	"That's why I wanted to get involved."	