Description/Topic of clip	Start time	End time	Starting language or Quote	Notes, if any
Story of the first Trans march going down Church St in 2009	13:46:02	13:53:12
	14:07:38		"We'll have a parade when we have something to fucking celebrate. Right now, we need a march."
	14:08:25		"What was great to me about the trans march..."
	14:12:15		"He who would sacrifice comfort over liberty deserves neither"
2014 Trans March vs. Pride Toronto trans march	14:13:20	14:19:20		(14:17:12 motorcycles screaming) (or ending at 14:20:30 for the story about trans women at the front)
	14:25:40		"Don't expect me to be grateful for basic human rights"
	14:31:35		"Everything I've done has been to show how human I am, not how trans I am. And that means being breathtakingly normal in some cases. It's not glamorous, but it's where the real heavy lifting of advocacy comes, I'm convinced of that."
	14:32:23		"The way for me to survive was to play the game - the long arc."
	14:52:40		"I guess we're giving mortgages to trans people now."
Reads from her graphic novel about trans mortality	15:03:30	15:07:07
Reads from her graphic novel about trans mortality	15:15:15	15:16:15
	15:34:35		"I'm not going to be your tragedy puppet."
	15:36:22	15:37:11	"Suicide is finishing somebody else's job... At least make them do the hard work... The only people suicide damages are the people who actually give a shit."
	15:39:30		"Social media is neither"
Legacy question	15:44:15			Intensely dislikes the term activist, is proud of the term advocate.
Talks about being loved and the importance of her partner's support	16:05:35	16:07:15	"That's the only thing that makes this possible."
