

Video Log Form

Name of interviewee: barbara findlay
 Name of Video Logger: Evan Taylor
 Interview date: 20-May-20

Description/Topic of clip	Start time	Starting language or Quote	End time	Ending language	Notes, if any
Working with Kimberly Nixon	0:53:26	"So, Kimberly came and told me what it happened to her..."	1:23:04	"...And it's amazing to me that she survived."
Lawyering in marginalized communities and the cost of litigation.	1:23:30	"If you're doing lawyering in a marginalized community..."	1:26:33	"...then no oversight whatsoever."
Lack of oversight in human rights decisions	1:26:34	"I did a case against the Vancouver city police in about 1997..."	1:28:04	"...Did it make it into the disciplinary procedures - like, you know?"
Politics and human rights quote	2:02:50	"Then, so then you see this weird phenomenon where-	2:02:58	Rape Relief is on the same side of issues as the People's Party of Canada."
The Charter and human rights quote	2:14:18	"So having Charter enshrined equality rights is honestly	2:14:35	the only reason that we have queer rights in Canada in the fashion that we do."
Talks about hopes & dreams for the world changing after COVID	2:17:00	"My hope and dream would be that..."	2:21:38	"...I think this is a moment of opportunity for sure. And we can use it."
barbara talks about ideas worth holding onto.	2:32:33	"Well, that takes me into the anti oppression work..."	2:36:34	"...The work has to be done, not only in community but across communities and across differences"
Legacy question	2:38:40	"I have no expectation at all that a generation from now there will be anybody who remembers..."		"...Like what a stupid thing to work for, to my mind."	