VICTORIA VOICE OF WOMEN. . . DECEMBER TACKBOARD

RUMMAGE SALE--9 until noon, December 7, Old Age Pensioners Hall

Call Evelyn Peaker (evenings) at 479-4063 or Mary Cox at 479-6081 for rummage pickup. We can use helping hands and a large quantity of brown paper bags, please.

VOICE OF WOMEN TEA--1 until 4, December 8, New Museum Tearoom

We are asking our members for supplies of:
fine grind coffee
cookies and fruitcake
bars and squares (no bread or iced cake, please)

IF YOU WOULD LIKE TO SEND A WORD OF GREETING to some or all of those 90 American boys who are spending Christmas in prison rather than in the business of death, call Evelyn or Mary for the list.

THERE WILL BE NO MEMBERSHIP MEETING IN DECEMBER. IN JANUARY we hope TO LAUNCH A YEAR OF ACTIVITY TO MATCH THE ENORMOUS CHALLENGES WE FACE AS PEACE-WORKERS IN CANADA, 1969. In the following space we ask each member to name that current issue which to her appears to have priority--and the action she would recommend to meet it. Please include also suggestions as to what kinds of meetings you feel might best call on the strength of the membership. Too few are involved--too much! Will it be films? speakers? letter-writing? tapes and discussion? action? And please send these thoughts to Box 21, Victoria, soon.
