LGBTQ2+ Oral History Digital Collaboratory Video Log Form
Name of Interviewee: Name of Video Logger: Interview date:	Dallas Denny Evan Taylor 2020/01/28					•
Description/Topic of clip	Start time	Starting Language or Quoto	End tim	Ending language	Notes, if any
	0:28:10	"Fortunately, the internet became available to the public in 1993 and I saw that as a way to distribute limitless amounts of information to an infinite number of people at a very low cost and instantly."
	0:50:34	"I tried to not be like an angry activist, but I was a determined activist."
iscusses the rigidity and stress of people undertaking transition.	0:51:18			"it's situational and it's temporary."
·	0:54:30	Tand you almost have to be an activist connectimes just get things you need. You know, we go to the courts and the judges would refuse to change their names. Allow them to change their names and they wouldn't end up getting calculated and become activists."
e: The transsexual empire	0:57:08	"The whole thing seems to have stemmed from her having had a crush on sandy stone back in the 1970s."
alking about Christine Jorgensen and trans identity.	1:31:07		nausus	"There were almost a class of people in our society. Now who weren't before because even-one was in the closet."
Legacy Question	01:41:58	"If someone were to read comething I words, whether it be fiction or comething about trans or read about me in general in the impressed with the work I did, that gives me a good feeling. You know, in 100 years if someone picks up a copy of the book in a dusthin somewhere, reads it, and likes it. That's really cood."
						Ī
						1