

Video Log Form

Name of interviewee:

Lynn Conway

Name of Video Logger:

Evan Taylor

Interview date:

2020/02/04

| Description/Topic of clip | Start time | Starting language or Quote | End time | Ending language | Notes, if any |
|--|------------|--|----------|---|---------------|
| Talks about remembering Pearl Harbour and the traits she has similarly to her parents. | 0:31:05 | "I was almost four years old when Pearl Harbour happened..." | 0:34:10 | "...doing really well and things like science and math." | |
| Talks about being fired at IBM. | 0:54:09 | "I found out I didn't really understand specifically..." | 0:58:24 | "...it is a great story, isn't it." | |
| Lynn discusses her work in making the design of silicon chips. | 1:05:10 | "It really happened was I was able..." | 1:12:12 | "...it was a tremendous experience." | |
| | 1:10:41 | "It created the freedom of the silicon press." | | | |
| Lynn talks about the impact of the article in Scientific American and trans demographics. | 1:33:19 | "Scientific American interviewed me and..." | 1:39:24 | "...this is pivotal for me and it really played a role in the moves that I that I made later on." | |
| Creating the successful trans people website. | 1:41:18 | "I knew there were a lot of successful people out there..." | 1:45:15 | "...catapulted the site into extreme visibility in the trans community around the world." | |
| Talks about her activism against Michael Baileys book | 1:46:33 | "But in March 2003, the US National Academy of Sciences..." | 2:02:45 | "...wasn't my first rodeo, so to speak." | |
| Lynn talks about the role of masculine/feminine facial features in gender recognition and her own facial feminization surgery. | 2:18:08 | "The thing is, when we actually look at other people..." | 2:22:26 | "...this has really helped sort of move things forward." | |
| | 2:31:31 | "There was a gendered allergic reaction to touching a keyboard." | | | |
| Describes The Conway Effect. | 2:39:24 | "I've written other perspectives on the issue that are more..." | 2:47:23 | "...they become great you know social explorers. Absolutely, see? Social leaders..." | |
| Legacy question | 3:06:32 | Adventure, being relational, doing more than just one thing. | | | |