

Events to note:

- 1) The Annual General Meeting of Victoria Voice of Women will be held on Wednesday, April 21 at 8 p.m. at the Y.M.-Y.W.C.A., 880 Courtney. Street Theatre will be performing a skit on the Calley trial.
- 2) International Day of Protest, April 24. Street Theatre will be performing around town and would very much appreciated help in handing out leaflets. Please phone Richard Rogers, 383-9560.
- 3) A friendly reminder - Have You paid your V.O.W. dues yet? Please send your membership fee to Mrs. T. Jellicoe,
#109 - 975 Fairfield
- 4) Victoria V.O.W. needs YOU. Would you be willing to stand for the Victoria executive? Please phone Kathleen Ruff, 477-3549.
- 5) -Further news of lettuces. We have been to visit the managers of all the major supermarkets and wholesalers in Victoria to request them to buy head lettuce only with the United Farmworkers' Union stamp. It would help a great deal if you would write to these managers expressing your feelings at their practice of buying lettuce from those farms where the pickers have been on strike for eight months seeking decent working conditions. Here are the addresses:-

a) Mr. Bryan, Shop Easy, Produce Manager, Malkin's Wholesale, 846 Viewfield, Victoria.	b) Mr. Jack Fidler, District Manager, Safeway Stores, 1641 Fort, Victoria.	c) Mr. Eadie, Produce Division Manager, Woodwards, 101 West Hastings, Vancouver.
- d) Mr. Merve Hampton,
Super-Valu,
Produce Division,
Kelly-Douglas,
470 Kingsway,
Burnaby.
- When you shop, please boycott non-union head lettuce. Ask to see if the box it came in bears the black aztec eagle of the farmworkers.
- We have a film (Huelga) on the conditions of the farmworkers in California and their attempts to organize for a better life. We would be glad to show this to any group of people. Do you know of any club, church, etc. that would be interested. Please phone Kathleen Ruff, 477-3549.
- 6) The Sandringham strikers are holding a march on Sunday, April 18. They will be meeting at 2 p.m. at Centennial Square and marching to the park behind Sandringham, where there will be speakers. All support is welcomed.
