

CB

DISTRIBUTION

About Comrade Black...

Comrade Black is a D.I.Y., retail distributor of political and small press books and pamphlets. Started in 1996, CB Distribution is an effort to counter the homogeneity of political and artistic thought that dominates the mainstream media at this time. CB also strives to keep prices as low as possible, recognizing that most of us who seek access to these ideas are generally on limited budgets. Unfortunately some of the books in this catalogue may still seem pricey. Please keep in mind that most are published by independent presses with very small, and therefore expensive runs. Access to the media has never come cheap in this country.

Speaking of access to the media, you may notice a similarity in names between Comrade Black and Conrad Black. (Conrad Black being the Australian/Canadian, right-wing newspaper magnate.) This seeming play on words is of course entirely coincidental. Conrad Black, through his Southam and Hollinger newspaper chains, currently owns over half of Canada's daily newspapers while Comrade Black is but only a fledgling distributor of material that Conrad Black would dislike immensely. Please do not get the two confused...

CB Distribution has no public store space. Instead, all CB sales are made privately or through "tabling" at local community events, colleges and universities. What this means is that there is low overhead and items I carry are generally priced about 20% under the publishers retail price. Unfortunately it also makes it a bit more difficult to come into contact with CB items. Currently, CB Distribution is being run by one person who will be travelling with the distribution for several months this year, so mail order is not something that seems feasible at this time. Of course, exceptions to this can be made, but the easiest way to contact Comrade Black is at the phone line. The message will have a calendar of where I'll be tabling for the next few weeks and will enable you to make an order for one of those times or set up an alternate way to purchase books. Please contact me on the voicemail or e-mail with any purchases or inquiries. Also, do not hesitate to contact me to order other small press items. I'll see what I can do...
